Medical.

Baltimore Lock Hospital.

DR. JOHNSTON,

Physician of this celebrated Institution, has discovered the most Certain, Speedy, Pleasant and Effectual Remedy in the World for all

DISEASES OF IMPRUDENCE,

Weakness of the Back, or Limbs, Strictures, Affections of the Kidneys, Gravel, Bladder, Involuntary Discharges, Impotency, General Debility, Nervousness, Dyspepsia, Languor, Low Spirits, Confusion of Ideas, Palpitation of the heart, Timidity, Trembling, Dimness of Sight, or Giddiness, Diseases of the Head, Throat, Nose or Skin, Affections of the Liver, Lungs, Stomach or Bowels—those terrible disorders arising from Solitary Habits of Youth—secret and solitary practices, more fatal to their victims, than the songs of the Syrens to the Mariners of Ulysses, blighting their most brilliant hopes, or antic pations, rendering marriage, &c., impossible.

YOUNG MEN who have injured themselves by a certain practice, indulged in when alone, a habit frequently learned from evil companions or at school, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and if not cured, renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately.

What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, the pride of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and employments of life, by the nauseating Drains of that dreadful habit, indulging in a certain secret habit. Such persons must, before contemplating reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote connubial happiness. Indeed, without these, the journey through life is a weary pilgrimage, the prospect hourly darkens to the view, the mind becomes shadowed to despair, and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another is blighted with our own.

DISEASE OF IMPRUDENCE.

When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds that he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame or dread of discovery deters him from applying to those who, from education and respectability, can alone befriend him. Consulting the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease makes their appearance, such as ulcerated sore throat, diseased nose, nocturnal pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity, till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commiseration till death puts a period to his dreadful sufferings, by sending him to that undiscovered country, from whence no traveler returns.

It is a melancholy fact, that thousands fall victims to this terrible disease, through failing into the hands of ignorant or Unskilful PRETENDERS, who, by the use of that deadly Poison, Mercury, &c., destroy the constitution, and incapable of curing, keep the unhappy sufferer months after month taking their nauseous or injurious compounds, and instead of being restored to a renewal of life, Vigor and happiness, in despair leave him with ruined Health, to sign over his galling disappointment.

To such, therefore, Dr. JOHNSTON pledges himself to preserve the most inviolable Secrecy, and from his extensive practice and observations in the great Hospitals of Europe, and the first in this country, viz: England, France, Philadelphia and elsewhere, is enabled to offer the most Speedy, Certain and Effectual Remedy in the World for all diseases of Imprudence.

ENDORSEMENT OF THE PRESS.

The many thousands cured at this establishment, year after year, and the numerous Surgical Operations performed by Dr. Johnston witnessed by the representatives of the press and many other persons, notices of which have appeared again and again before the public, besides his standing as a gentleman of character and responsibility, is a sufficient guarantee to the afflicted.

SKIN DISEASES SPEEDILY CURED.
March 11, 1870—1y|pr

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA,

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

THE reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, and the cures it performs, many of which are truly marvellous. Inveterate cases of Scrofulous disease, where the system seemed saturated with corruption, have been purified and cured by its use. Scrofulous affections and disorders, which have lain concealed in the scrofulous contamination until they were painfully afflicting, have been radically cured in such great numbers in almost every section of the country, that the public scarcely need to be informed of its virtues or uses.

Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and subtil tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of enfeebling or fatal diseases, which excites a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on a favorable occasion, rapidly develops into one or the other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver, or it may be present by eruptions on the skin, or foul ulcerations on some part of the body. Hence the necessity, in order to a perfect cure, of such a remedy as will neutralize and expel this foreign matter from the blood. When this is done, health will follow. No other medicine can be relied on with half the confidence as this, for the cure of are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing those obstinate forms. In any modern disease, the long continued use of this medicine will cure the complaint. Leucorrhœa or Whites, Uterine Ulcerations, and Female Diseases, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by its purifying and invigorating effect. Minute Directions for each case are found in our Almanac, supplied gratis. Rheumatism and Gout, when caused by accumulations of extraneous matters in the blood, yield quickly to it, as also Liver Complaints, Dyspepsia, Dysentery, Diarrhœa or Inflammation of the Liver, and Jaundice, when arising, as they often do, from the rankling poison in the blood. This SARSAPARILLA is a great restorer for the strength and vigor of the system. Those who are Languid and Listless, Despondent, Sleepless, and troubled with Nervous Apprehensions or Fears, or any of the symptomatic of Weakness, will find immediate relief and convincing evidence of its restorative power upon trial.

Scrofula or Tesered and its varied Diseases

SALE OF THE GETTYSBURG RAILROAD.

We have received from David Wills, Esq., the following telegram in regard to the sale of the Gettysburg Railroad, which took place at the Merchants' Exchange, Philadelphia, yesterday:

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 13.

D. A. BUEHLER, Esq.:

C. S. Maltby bought the Gettysburg Railroad to-day, for $181,000, being the highest bidder. D. WILLS.

We have no information as to the parties Mr. Maltby represents. He resides in New Haven, Connecticut, and is the person who hold the Bonds, originally hypothecated to Hopkins, Bittinger, Swope and others. The Hanover Branch Company was one of the bidders.

THE DISTRICT.

The vote in this Congressional District is very close, and the official figures can only definitely determine whether Cessna or Meyers is elected. Cessna gains in Adams and Franklin, and is reported to have carried Bedford, while he loses heavily in Somerset. Our last reports elect Cessna by about 23.

A Harrisburg despatch of this morning claims Meyer's election by 29.

DEATH OF GEN. LEE.

Gen. Robert E. Lee, leader of the Rebel armies during the War, died at Lexington, Va., on Tuesday last, aged 65 years. Since the war he has been acting as President of Washington College, at Lexington.

AFTER THE BATTLE.

With the election on Tuesday, ends the political campaign of 1870, so far as concerns Pennsylvania. Both parties will rest on their arms until summoned to a renewal of the struggle in October, 1871. For some weeks we have devoted a large portion of our columns to political matters, to the exclusion of our usual variety. In future, while unflinchingly supporting the principles of the Republican party, we shall expect to cater for the varied tastes of our large number of readers in the various departments of General News, Local Items, and Miscellaneous Reading. It will be our aim to make the STAR AND SENTINEL an acceptable and valued family paper. Our friends in the townships can largely aid us, by sending in promptly items of local interest in their respective localities, Marriages, Deaths, Sales, Accidents, Improvements, &c., all of which are read with interest and enhance the value of a local paper.—Please bear this in mind.

With new type, and a large accession to our Jobbing department, we have better facilities than ever for all kinds of Job Work, and will be prepared to meet all favors in this line promptly and on reasonable terms.

THE COUNTY.

The Democrats have carried the county by a reduced majority, electing their entire ticket. Barr made heavy inroads, but not enough to overcome the Democratic majority. The people of the county seem content to stand the present administration of County finances, debt, taxes and all, and to their verdict we cheerfully submit.

For Congress Mr. Meyers beats Cessna in the county about 320. This, although less than the Democratic majority in 1868 and 1869, is slightly in excess of our calculation—the Republicans having conceded the county to Meyers by from 250 to 300. Prejudice against the negro, unquestionably lost us some votes, a few week-kneed Republicans having succumbed to the Copperhead howlings over the "nigger." It was the last chance of the enemy, and they made the most of it—not as much as they expected, but enough to keep their own disaffected in line, and temporarily to win over a few Republicans who in time will be thoroughly ashamed of their folly.

The newly enfranchised colored voters did their whole duty, casting a solid vote for the Republican ticket. They seemed fully to appreciate the responsibility of their new position, and met it manfully; quietly, but firmly asserting their rights, and exhibiting a good deal of activity in arranging to poll a full vote. In the borough of Gettysburg, they were among the first to appear at the polls, and voted quietly, and without objection by the Democratic canvassers. The Democracy having conducted the campaign on an anti-negro platform, did not dare publicly to canvass for colored votes, but undertook privately to manipulate such of them as were thought to be susceptible of manipulation. As such came to the polls, they were quietly taken possession of by the colored canvassers and matters straightened out.

The election in the borough passed off quietly, with less contesting of votes than usual, although both parties made active efforts to poll all available votes. A number of Republican votes were absent, and a few Democrats—the aggregate poll being lighter than was expected.

The day opened pleasantly, but about noon rain set in, which continued during the day and night, doubtless preventing the poll of many votes in the rural districts.

WITHOUT desiring to discriminate as between the good work done by Republicans on last Tuesday, we think it not amiss to say that among the Democratic districts, where our friends are in a minority, there are two or three worthy of special mention. Oxford township reduced the Democratic majority handsomely. Straban, one of the best fought districts in the county, not only held the opposition to their meager majority of last year, but gave Barr for Director 17 majority, and elected Fletcher Van Orsdal, Republican, Township Assessor. Our friends in Cumberland made a glorious fight, sweeping away the Democratic majority of 23 and piling from 6 to 16 Republican majority on top of it. A few of the township officers, including Judge of Elections, were lost by local difficulties.

There are doubtless other districts, Republican and Democratic, deserving favorable mention, of which we may speak hereafter.

THE Commissioners of the Sinking Fund have just made out a monthly statement, by which it appears that $109,050 of the State debt were redeemed during the month of September, The amount redeemed since November 30, 1869, is $1,576,121.

THE RESULT.

Grand Republican Triumph!

PENNSYLVANIA O. K.

REPUBLICAN SENATE AND HOUSE.

The result of Tuesday's election in Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Iowa and Nebraska, is a grand Republican triump. Two years ago the Republicans swept all these States, with an unusually large majority of the Congressmen. The Democracy counted surely on carrying enough districts on Tuesday to break down the Republican ascendency in Congress, while few, if any, Republicans hoped to hold their own in these States. The result is a complete demolition of Democratic expectations, and a re-assertion of the popular devotion to the principles and policy of the Republican party. The principles so often defended and asserted on the field and at the polls have been re-affirmed, deliberately but emphatically, by the people, not in the heat of enthusiasm or under the pressure of anger, but as the conviction of judgment. It is a triumph thus of far more weight than the victory of an exciting and hotly-contested campaign. It is rather in the nature of a judicial verdict.

PENNSYLVANIA.

The Republicans sweep Philadelphia by about 5,000 majority, electing their Judges, Sheriff, Register, Clerk of the Courts, &c. Myers and Kelley are elected to Congress by increased majorities. In the 2d district, the contest was between Creely and O'Neil, both claiming to be the regular Republican nominee. Creely is elected by about 400 majority.

In the 5th district, Reading beats Harmer by a few hundred. Two years ago he beat Taylor, but the latter contested the election on the ground of fradulent votes, and got the seat.

The 12th district, now represented by Judge Woodward, is carried by Shoemaker, being a Republican gain.

In the 21st district, Foster beats Stewart by a small majority, being a Democratic gain.

The 20th and 24th districts are close; but we think the Republican candidates are elected.

We annex a list of the members elect—the delegation in Congress standing 17 Republicans to 8 Democrats.

First district—Samuel J. Randal, * Dem.
Second—John V. Creely, Rep.
Third—Leonard Myers, * Rep.
Fourth—Wm. D. Kelley, * Rep.
Fifth—John R. Reading, D., gain.
Sixth—E. L. Acker, Dem.
Seventh—Washington Townsend, Dem.
Eighth—J. Lawrence Getz, *Dem.
Ninth—Oliver J. Dickey, * Rep.
Tenth—John W. Killinger, Rep.
Eleventh—John B. Storms, Dem.
Twelfth—L. D. Shoemaker, Rep., gain.
Thirteenth—Ulysses Mercur, * Rep.
Fourteenth—John B. Packer, * Rep.
Fifteenth—R. J. Haldeman, * Dem.
Sixteenth—John Cessna, * Rep.
Seventeenth—D. J. Morrell, * Rep.
Eighteenth—W. H. Armstrong, * Rep.
Nineteenth—G. W. Scofield, * Rep.
Twentieth—C. W. Gilfillan, * Rep.
Twenty-first—Henry D. Foster, Dem., gain.
Twenty-second—James S. Negley, * Rep.
Twenty-third—Ebenezer McJunkin, Rep.
Twenty-fourth—James B. Donley, * Rep.

*Re-elected.

The Republicans have the next Legislature by a decided majority, ensuring a fair Congressional and Legislative apportionment. The Republican majority in the Senate will be 5, and in the House 20.

OHIO.

The Republicans gain largely throughout the State over last year, and will have from 12,000 to 15,000 majority.—The Congressional delegation will probably stand the same as last year—14 Republicans to 5 Democrats.

In the 3d district, (Schenck's) and the 4th, the vote is close, with probabilities of a defeat of the Republican candidates; but we gain, by way of offset, the 1st and 9th districts. Judge Bingham is re-elected.

INDIANA.

The vote on the State ticket is close, but the Congressional delegation will probably be unchanged—7 Republicans to 4 Democrats—although the 7th district is close.

There are but few returns from Iowa and Nebraska, but there is no doubt the Republicans have carried both States as usual.

THE LATEST!

FRIDAY, 1½ o'clock, P. M.

To-day's telegrams claim the election of Harmer, Republican, in the 5th district, and the defeat of Morrell in the 17th district.

Harding (Rep.) beats Woodward (Dem.) in Luzerne for President Judge by 1,600 majority.

Indiana elects the Democratic State ticket by a small majority. Legislature in doubt.

THE 6th ward, Philadelphia, one of the Democratic strong-holds, has a large number of colored voters. The Democratic roughs, backed by the Police, made an organized attempt to prevent the colored men from voting. Their line was broken, and a number clubbed and beaten. The Mayor was appealed to, but failing to secure order, U. S. Marshal Gregory sent deputies to the disturbed district, who reported their inability to enforce order by reason of the Police backing up the roughs. At 12 o'clock, the riot had assumed formidable proportions, when Gen. Gregory sent a posse of U. S. Marines to the aid of his deputies, whose presence overawed the roughs and at once restored order. The Mayor protested against the presence of armed soldiers, but Gen. Gregory stood firm, and the election proceeded quietly—the Marines remaining until it had closed,

THE Compiler announces, with some misgivings, as having been "asserted, re-asserted and not denied," that on the evening of the 1st inst., "D. A. Buehler, editor of the Star and Sentinel," actually addressed a meeting of the colored Republicans of the borough. The same fact having been announced in our columns last week, the Compiler's doubts are probably by this time dissipated. We may add, that we never addressed a more orderly or well behaved meeting, and none the addressing of which gave us more sincere pleasure, than these new-enfranchised citizens.

We feel well assured that by the time our neighbor gets a few years older, he will be very glad to have the privilege of addressing a meeting of colored Democratic voters—an event, however, which we trust will be a long time coming.

THE State of Alabama has been constituted a separate military district, under command of General S. W. Crawford, of Chambersburg, and ten additional companies of troops have been ordered there. This is on account of the recent outrages in the interior of the State, which the local authorities are powerless to suppress.

Packer's majority in the county 387.

WE have delayed going to press this week, to secure the official vote of Adams County.

PRESIDENT GRANT has issued a proclamation of neutrality in the war between France and Prussia. It declares that the bays, waters and harbors of the United States shall not be used in preparing for war by either party; that ships of war of either belligerent shall not leave a port of the United States within twenty-four hours after the departure of a merchantman of either belligerent; that war vessels of either belligerent shall not remain in any United States port more than twenty-four hours, unless it be for needed repairs or supplies; and that a war vessel of either party after once having entered a United States port shall not re-enter a United States port until after having visited a European port of its own Government.

AN awakened and accusing conscience often is the bitterest of punishments. A singular instance recently occurred in Massachusetts. A watchman in the Charlestown State Prison brutally threw a small boy into the water from the prison wharf, where he was playing with other boys. The child pleaded for his life, saying he could not swim; but the cruel watchman made not the slightest effort to save him, and he was drowned. For this barbarous deed the light sentence of five years' imprisonment was inflicted upon him. But into his prison an avenging monitor followed him. The heinousness of his crime arose before him, and remorse was so great that his health failed, and he became absolutely insane. Only a little over one month of his imprisonment had passed when he died in the hospital, a most pitiable object.

ALTHOUGH Col. Ephraim Myers suffered by the villainous misrepresentations as to his character in some of the districts, he has the consolation of having made a capital run among his neighbors who knew him, and where these slanders fell harmless at his feet. He runs 92 ahead of the ticket in Littlestown, Germany and Union.

AN OLD MISER CUTS A CHILD'S TONGUE OUT AND HIS FINGERS OFF—THE MONSTER SHOT DEAD IN HIS TRACKS.—Last week's Saginaw (Michigan) Republic says:

It has been known for some time that a dirty, wretched old man lived outside the city, about a mile or so, in a filthy little cabin, entirely alone, and that he was a hermit. No one ever went near him, for it was said that he was a magician.

His only companion was a skeleton-looking dog. He came into the city sometimes to beg, and would piteously implore for money, stating that he was starving.—Sometimes he would gather rags or scraps of paper and sell them. Every one supposed him to be wretchedly poor. He had an evil look, and mothers would remove their children when they saw him coming. One day last week, however, a child, the son of Mr. Abraham Skinner, went out alone to fish in the stream, and happened to wander on until, before he knew it, he came to the hovel of the old man. At first he was frightened, but seeing no one around he plucked up courage and went nearer. Everything was silent. He went and peeped through a crack in the side of the hut.

He almost screamed at what he saw, for he beheld the old man bending over a bag of money that he was coming. There were other bags beside him containing large quantities of money. Mr. Skinner's son was so terrified that when he attempted to move he stumbled. Like lightning the old man rushed out and seized him.—"Ha!" he screamed, "I've caught you, have I? You saw me, did you? Well—now you'll pay for it." And before Mr. Skinner's son could say a word the old monster, with an awful laugh, drew out a knife, and (oh, horror!) cut the child's tongue out. Then he chopped off his fingers. "Now," he said—"now you can go, for you can't tell." The poor boy ran off overcome with agony, and ran to his father's house only to fill them with consternation. What was the matter with their child? He could not speak to tell them! He could not write, for his fingers were cut.

Still the poor boy, after efforts of the most horrible pain, managed to fix a pencil between his bloody stumps of fingers, and wrote the awful tale. A party was immediately organized, and hastened to the miser's den. He was at the door as they approached, and fired a revolver six times at them, wounding two of the party seriously. Mr. Skinner returned the fire, and the aged villain fell, with a piercing yell, mortally wounded. "My money! my money!" he moaned, "my beautiful money," and he crawled to his bags of gold and sank upon them—a corpse! Over $10,000 was discovered, which was presented to the Poorhouse and other charitable institutions. The event will never be forgotten by our citizens. The child is slowly recovering. The miser was buried the day after, and the hut was torn down.

FUNDING OF THE NATIONAL DEBT.

Details and conditions of the new Loan.

The Secretary of the Treasury has just issued the following circular with reference to the funded loan of the United States of 1880, 1885 and 1900:

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
WASHINGTON, October 8, 1870.

The Secretary of the Treasury in anticipation of proposals to be issued by him for subscriptions to the National loan, under the act approved July 14, 1870, entitled "An act to authorize the re-funding of the National debt," gives notice of the terms and conditions on which such proposals will be issued. The proposed loan comprises three classes of bonds, namely: 1st. Bonds to the amount of $200,000,000, payable at the pleasure of the United States after ten years from the date of their issue, and bearing interest, payable semi-annually in coin at the rate of 5 per cent. per annum. 2nd. Bonds to the amount of $800,000,000 payable at the pleasure of the United States after fifteen years from the date of their issue, and bearing interest payable semi-annually, in coin, at the rate of 4½ per cent. per annum. 3rd. Bonds to the amount of $1,000 000,000 payable at the pleasure of the United States after thirty years from the date of their issue, and bearing interest payable semi-annually, in coin, at the rate of 4 per cent. per annum.

Banks and responsible bankers will be designated for the negotiation of the loan, and paid a commission upon the amounts negotiated by them separately. Subscribers to the loan will have preference in the following order, namely: 1st.—Subscribers for equal amounts of the 1st and 3rd classes of bonds. 2nd. Subscribers for equal amounts of each class of bonds. 3rd. Subscribers for 5 per cent. bonds, according to the per cent. of premium offered or at par in the order of the date of subscribers.

When a subscription is made subscribers will be requested to deposit 2 per cent. of the amount there of, to be accounted for by the Government when the bonds are delivered, and payment may be made either in coin or in the bonds of the United States known as Five-twenty bonds at their par value. The coin received in payment will be applied to the redemption of the Five-twenty bonds.

The bonds will be registered or issued with coupons, as may be desired by the subscribers, and in denominations of $50, $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000. The interest will be payable in the United States at the office of the Treasurer, any Assistant Treasurer or designated Depository of the Government. The bonds of the several classes aforesaid and the interest theron are exempt from the payment of all taxes or dues of the United States, as well as from taxation in any form by or under State, municipal or local authority. After maturity the bonds last issued will be first redeemed, by classes and number, as may be designated by the Secretary of the Treasury.

GEORGE S. BOUTWELL,
Secretary.

THE expense of building Wilhelmshohe or "William's Height," the residence assigned to Louis Napoleon by the King of Prussia, was enormous. It is said that it required the labor of two thousand men fourteen years, and that the accounts were burned to destroy all traces of the extravagance. This palatial chateau and pleasure-park was built by Frederick II., Elector of Hesse, out of money received by him from George III., of England, for the 17,000 Hessians hired by King George, as Elector of Hanover. All the surroundings of the place are in the most luxurious style. Nothing is wanting. There are hot-houses on an amazing plan; temples of Apollo and Mercury; waterfalls, pheasantries, lakes and a Chinese village. There is, perhaps, the greatest fountain in the world, its column of water rising to a height of 190 feet, and being 12 inches in thickness. At the highest point of the grounds, nearly 1400 feet above the Fulda, there is a strange building of octagonal shape, with a series of cascades descending from its foot; through five basins, to a "Grotto of Neptune." The building at the top of the cascade is named the Riesenschloss, from a colossal statue of Hercules.

EMANCIPATION IN CUBA.—The decree for the emancipation of slaves in Cuba provides that all children of slave mothers hereafter born shall be free; that all children born since September, 1868, shall be free on the payment of twenty-five dollars; that all slaves who have served the Spanish Government against the rebels shall be liberated, loyal owners only to be indemnified for their loss; that those slaves who have reached the age of sixty, and all hereafter arriving at that age, shall be free without compense to their owners, and all slaves owned by the State are free without qualification. Careful provision is made for the education of the young by a system of apprenticeship, and the State is responsible for the welfare of the freedmen who have served it heretofore; those who prefer to return to Africa will have the opportunity. Provision is also made for the emancipation of the slaves of masters who are cruel. When the new Cuban Deputies take their seats in the Cortes a project will be presented for the gradual emancipation of all the slaves still held in Cuba.

A WRITER in Good Health says that the average weight, all the year round, of that portion of a woman's clothing which is supported from the waist is between ten and fifteen pounds; and that if a woman was sentenced to carry such a weight about in this way for a number of years, for some great crime, the punishment would be denounced as an inhuman one, yet thousands of women daily endure such a punishment voluntarily, because they do not know the bad effects likely to follow it. The writer earnestly counsels women—not to adopt an attire similar to that worn by men, but have their to clothing suspended from the shoulders, by which dangerous pressure on abdominal muscles would be avoided.

WE must watch for our lives nowadays, or we shall be inadvertently killed by the carelessness of druggists and their clerks. A lady in Milford, Connecticut, recently went to an apothecary for castor-oil, but the croton-oil given her instead put an end to her existence. A little girl in Bridgeport was ordered to take quinine. Her physician wrote a prescription for it. The druggist's clerk put up morphine, and the child was killed. Incorrect accounts of these and similar mistakes may have been given to the public, but a single case of this kind is a serious matter, and should lead to the most stringent precautions.

THE German soldier find his sausage as important to him as his needle-gun.—The Government supplies the army with a sort of sausage made of peas-meal onions, spices, and bacon. It is so made that it will keep a long time, and, in fact, needs no further cooking, and is only put into hot water before eating, when this can be done. It is both palatable and nutritious. In Cologne several buildings are appropiated to the manufacture of this sausage, and over two thousand men employed.

JENNIE LIND and Florence Nightingale are among the London Committee for the relief of the sick and wounded in the European war.

SENATOR WILSON AND JERRY BLACK.

The Atlantic Monthly for October contains an article from the pen of Senator Wilson, of Massachusetts, which for several reasons is possessed of more than passing importance. Shortly after the death of Edwin M. Stanton, Senator Wilson gave to the public some reminiscences, designed to show the lofty patriotism and incalculable services rendered to the country by Mr. Stanton in the closing days of Buchanan's administration. Jeremiah S. Black, who was a member of Buchanan's cabinet at that time, replied in what was a bitter, and was intended to be, a scathing article, in which he flatly denied the accuracy of Senator Wilson's statements, and really impugned both the character and services alleged to have been rendered by Mr. Stanton, Senator Wilson's reply not only thoroughly disposes of Black's statements and assertions, but goes further, and furnishes an inside view of the influences and counter-influences at work in the closing days of Buchanan's administration. It gives a view of the deep and damnable corruptions of the rebellious element in Washington, such as has not been so clearly, connectedly, and convincingly laid open to the people before.

It shows that there was an actual conspiracy in progress among the members of Buchanan's cabinet, and even in his very presence, to seize upon the government after the manner of the coup d'etat of Napoleon. It shows that a most intense struggle was maintained between the loyal and disloyal element—the one struggling to guard against treachery and the destruction of the government, and the other struggling as eagerly to so arrange matters as that its archives and material might be securely seized by the rebellious element then in Washington. In the midst of these secret but gigantic efforts, Stanton placed himself in communication with the Republicans and loyal Democrats, clandestinely corresponded with Seward, visited Sumner in the small hours of the morning, and secured by Congress the appointment of a committee empowered to investigate the pending dangers, kept that committee constantly informed of what was transpiring—in a word, displayed the astuteness of a Richelieu and the vigor of a Napoleon in defeating the machinations of traitors. The history of one of his movements, as sketched by Mr. Howard, of Michigan, we transfer to our columns, as being new and fresh, and as giving a clear idea of the manner in which the secret plans of traitors were as secretly foiled. After mentioning the circumstances under which the committee above referred to was raised, he says:

"I do not know that Mr. Stanton wrote the resolutions creating the committee. I did not see him write them. I never heard him say he wrote them. It would be easier, however, to persuade me that Mr. Jefferson did not write the Declaration of Independence than that Mr. Stanton did not write those resolutions. If he did write them, they are a sufficient answer all to that Mr. Black has said or can say. Whoever wrote them and requested the House of Representatives to adopt them would not have occupied any doubtful position. I do not think I saw Mr. Stanton at any time between the 1st of January and the 4th of March, 1861; but I think I heard from him more times than there were days in those two months. The clearest statements of legal rights, defining the boundaries of treason, the most startling facts, when the evidence of treachery could be found, were furnished.

One of the secretaries had accepted the resignation of officers who had joined the rebellion, and had dated back the resignations, in one case two days, for the avowed purpose of protecting the scoundrel from trial by naval or military law, for leading the attack on the Pensacola Navy yard on the 12th day of January, 1861, while he still held his commission. The letter covering the resignation stated that the resignation was written on the 11th, but dated back to the 11th, the day before the attack, and he wanted the acceptance to be dated from that day, so as to save him from military law. It boasted that they had smashed the civil courts in Florida. The resignation was received at the department on the 22d day of January at 8 o'clock in the afternoon; but the acceptance was dated on the 11th, as requested. I state dates from memory, and may not be entirely accurate. We were put upon this inquiry by information brought to us by a bird which flew directly from some Cabinet Minister to the committee room. I never suspected Mr. Black or Mr. Toucey of this impropriety. If I suspected Mr. Stanton or Mr. Dix or Mr. Holt, it was because they were "suspicious characters."

"We were more than once told it would probably be necessary to arrest a certain member of the cabinet for treason. Once we were told that it would probably have to be within an hour, but to wait until we could hear a second time. Word came to hold on. These messages certainly came from some member of the cabinet. I always supposed something was going on there about that time. If so, probably Mr. Black did not know anything about it, and most likely Mr. Stanton's great modesty prevented his doing or saying anything about it. Mr. Black informs us, too, that Mr. Stanton was at the time a "Democrat;" perhaps that prevented his doing or saying anything about these matters. For obvious reasons personal interviews with cabinet ministers were avoided during the labors of the committee; but I do know I many times sent inquiries, and always received answers with great promptness, conveying information of great importance. But these communications were indirect and anonymous."

He also shows that Mr. Stanton at one time had convinced Mr. Buchanan that the government had a right to coerce States, and had written for his message a clear statement of the doctrine, but was afterward expunged by the influence of other members of the cabinet. The article also takes in its range the question of the appointment of Mr. Stanton as Secretary of War by President Lincoln, and clearly shows, by the most indubitable evidence, that Mr. Cameron not only voluntarily resigned that position, but that the appointment of Mr. Stanton as his successor should be ascribed to his influence. The singular statements of the Commercial on this subject seem pitiable in the light of Senator Wilson's revelations.

But the value of this article consists in the incidental evidence it affords of the terrible corruption and desperation of the Democracy, when they thought they were losing their hold on power. The purposes of Andrew Johnson have been gradually belied if he did not cherish the same design as is ascribed to the traitors in Buchanan's cabinet. Added to this, Mr. Wilson shows clearly a fact of which we have made frequent mention of late—the thorough prostitution of the credit of the country under Buchanan's administration. Howell Cobb, his Secretary of the Treasury, could only get money at all—the Government was run on borrowed money—by submitting to a tremendous shave, and paying usurious interest. It is rarely the case that cotemporary history is written up while the facts are fresh, and the secret villainies of corrupt politicians brought fully to light during the lifetime of some of the actors. This Mr. Wilson does, and shows that there was corruption displayed in a positive attempt to undermine and destroy our government, such as would have shamed the worst political conspirators of past ages; and that there was a depth of deceit and a turpitude of wrong absolutely indescribable. And yet, the representatives of the same party, with principles unchanged, and spirit unaltered, are claiming to be again entrusted with power.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

THE MOUNT OF OLIVES.

Writing to the Observer, from Jerusalem, "Eusebius" says:

"Apart from the sacred associations of the Mount of Olives it is one of the most interesting places in the region of Jerusalem. The view of the city itself is the finest to be had from any point. The summit of the Mount of Olives is three hundred feet above the area of the temple, on which it looks directly down, as upon the whole city which lies spread like a map before one's eyes. Every point in the city can be distinguished, and every mountain round can be seen, and, looking eastward, we see the Valley of the Jordan. The Dead Sea itself, although nearly twenty miles distant and three thousand nine hundred and thirty-five feet below, is as plain to the sight as Jerusalem. If the view is so interesting now, what must it have been when Jerusalem was in its glory and the land of Palestine like a garden?

"I was greatly interested, when ascending the Mount of Olives at different times, in tracing out the path that David took—when he fled from the treachery of Absalom. 'And David went up by the ascent of Mount Olivet, and wept as he went up, and had his head covered, and went barefoot; and all the people that were with him covered every man his head, and they went up, weeping as they went up.' Nothing in the history of the reverses which kings have suffered could be more touching than this. The scene was constantly recurring to my mind as I went up the mountain from time to time. I was almost expecting to meet Shimei as I passed over its summit. The Mohammedans were there with their curses if he was not."

SUMMARY OF WAR NEWS.

TUESDAY Oct. 11.—M. Gambetta, Secretary of the Interior, in a proclamation to the people of the several departments relative to affairs in Paris, says the impregnability of Paris is no illusion. It cannot be captured or surprised, and there is no danger of the sedition or starvation which the Prussians have been counting on.

The Prussians are pushing their works near Jerome Park, near Meudon, and on the Bimborian Hill, near Sevres. When completed, the Prussian artillery will command Auteuil, Passy, Grenelle, and other points west and southwest of Paris.

It is said the Tours government is beginning to prepare the public, through the medium of the press, for a cession of French territory to Germany.

La Liberte consents to a slight rectification of the frontier near Wissembourg.

LOCAL ITEMS.

VALUABLE SALE.—We direct the attention of our readers to the sale of valuable Stock and Farming Utensils, of Mr. George M. Howell, to take place on the "Minnigh farm," near the Springs Hotel, on Tuesday the 25th of October.

PREMIUM WON.—At the Franklin county Fair, last week, in the trot open to all, "General Geary" belonging to Dr. T. T. Tate, of Gettysburg, won the premium over "Little Harry," owned by Mr. Lynch, of Hagerstown.

John Pitzer, of Cumberland township, Adams county, took the premium for the best thorough bred Stallion.

ACCIDENT.—We regret to learn that Mr. Joseph Holland, of Hanover, met with a severe accident on Monday week, on his way to Gettysburg with a new buggy for exhibition at the Adams county fair.—When near Bonaughtown, his horse became frightened at a team in the road, upsetting the buggy, throwing out Mr. H., breaking the buggy and injuring him very severely. Although severely hurt, he is doing well and is on his legs again.—Citizen.

SHERIFF'S SALE.—On Saturday last, Sheriff Klunk sold the following properties:

The interest of Geo. E. and J. T. H. Bringman, being one-half, in 200 Acres of land in Straban township, for $3.105—purchaser Henry Fromeier.

The Store-House and Lot of George E. Bringman, on Chambersburg street, for $1200—D. McConaughy, Esq., purchaser.

The House and Lot of Jacob Strickhouser, corner of Middle and Stratton streets, for $1055—purchaser Wm. Rupp.

The Mill property of Israel Bricker, Butler towhship, for $4,205—purchasers, Messrs. Nicky and Baker, of York county.

SALES.—Jacob Riley has sold out his interest in the Gettysburg Lime-kiln to Henry Overdeer, for $4,400.

The Assignee of Jacob Keller sold the Real Estate of the said Assignor, in Union township, 197 Acres; to Mrs. Sophia Keller, at $105.25 per acre, being about $20,734.25.

Mr. George Groupe, Assignee of Jacob Peters, has sold the Mansion property, in Menallen township, containing 145 Acres, to David Wills, Esq., and Hiram S. Wright, at $39.75 per acre.

Nathaniel Geiselman has sold his property in Cumberland township, 14 Acres and Improvements, to David Schriver, for $1,000.

ARENDTSVILLE IMPROVEMENTS.—A correspondent at Arendtsville, this county, mentions the following improvements in that place: Thomas Heckenluber has built a splendid new house. Moses Raffensperger, John Toot and Daniel Pannell are putting up new houses this Fall yet.—James Taylor has erected a new house west of town. Samuel Steinour has improved his house. Three others have been remodeled. Jacob Lady and Reuben Minter have erected beautiful small barns.—J. B. Spahr has put up a complete ice house. A new street has been opened, affording more lots for building. Arendtsville has many advantages—splendid location, good soil, and the best of water.—Compiler.

GOOD YIELD.—We find the following paragraph in an Ohio paper. John McCreary is a brother of Mr. David McCreary, of this place:

"Mr. John McCreary, of Champaign county, whose farm lies near the Clark county line, near Bowlhattan, put in twenty-two acres of wheat last fall, which averaged this harvest forty bushels to the acre. Such averages and such yields stock the barns of our farmers and fill their pockets. The seed from which this large crop was grown was what is known as the Egyptian."

SUDDEN DEATH.—On last Tuesday, Mr. James McSherry, residing a few miles from Littlestown, started to the woods with a wagon for the purpose of getting wood, and not returning for some length of time, his friends started for the woods to ascertain the cause of his detention.—His lifeless body was soon found lying on the ground, a short distance from the wagon. When Mr. McSherry started for the woods, he was in the enjoyment of his usual good health, and when found a short time after, was a lifeless corpse. It is thought that his death was caused by paralysis.—Press.

CHURCH DEDICATION.—The new Methodist Episcopal Chapel at Pine Grove Furnace will be dedicated on Saturday and Sabbath Oct. 22d and 23d.

A church at this point has been greatly needed for many years. By the earnest efforts of the people of the vicinity and the generosity of Mr. Jay Cooke and other members of the South St. Iron Co. a neat and comfortable chapel has been just completed. The services connected with the dedication will begin at 2½ o'clock on Saturday afternoon, Oct. 22d, when Rev. Dr. Dashiell, President of Dickinson College, will preach. The Doctor is one of the finest pulpit orators in the state. Other distinguished ministers will assist on the occasion and during the Sabbath.

VALUE OF ADVERTISING.—A writer in the New York Tribune makes this sensible suggestion, which we commend to business men generally:

Many a business man is afraid of the expense of advertising, and yet will pay high rents for a prominent store to exhibit his wares, and put up expensive signs, and seems not to know that both are expensive methods of advertising.

The instances of men who have made fortunes by advertising are too numerous to question; but how have they done it?—By exercising good judgment; by knowing how, where and when to advertise.—The whole secret is there. Advertising has become a science, and unless the principles are adhered to, large amounts of money may be expended to no purpose.—To advertise successfully requires more knowledge of the means than most business men possess and more thought than they have time to bestow to it. Hence many large houses find it profitable to employ competent men who make it their specialty.

I venture the opinion that every person experienced in advertising will bear me out in saying that the business man who controls the sale of an article that supplies an actual want, need not fear to invest largely in advertising, if he does it with intelligent tact and discrimination as to the use of the best means. Under proper circumstances, he cannot fail of realizing a fortune.

COLD WEATHER.—As cold weather is almost at hand, and every person will be required to have Winter Clothing, we would remind them that Frank Cunningham has just returned from the city with a large assortment of Ready-Made Clothing of all kinds, also Cloths, Cassimers, Beavers, &c., which he is prepared to manufacture into good fitting garments at the shortest notice. Remember his store is on Chambersburg Street, next door to the Keystone Hotel. It BOROUGH ELECTION.—We annex the full vote for local officers in Gettysburg. There was, as usual, a good deal of "cutting," on local issues, but the Republican candidates are all elected by majorities ranging from 100 to 143.

ANOTHER CARAVAN AND CIRCUS.—J. M. French's great Oriental Circus and Egyptian Caravan, is without doubt the finest and most extensive exhibition that has ever been organized. This Colossal Exhibition will visit Gettysburg, giving two exhibitions, one in the afternoon and one in the evening, on Tuesday, October 18th. This Exhibition includes a number of remarkable animals; among the wonders to be noted is the mammoth lion den, containing six fierce Kaffra lions, a herd of sixteen huge camels, and the great elephant, Empress, the largest animal nature ever produced, the calf elephant, Sultan, the smallest of the kind ever seen in America, of which a fuller description is given in the advertisement. It is something well worth seeing, and we have no doubt the immense tent will be filled both afternoon and evening. A fine street display will take place in the morning at ten o'clock. The following we clip from the Donnelsonville Herald of June 9th.

"J. M. French's Circus and Oriental Caravan exhibited in Worcester to-day, and was attended by an immense crowd of people. The entry into the city was beautiful beyond description. The Den of Lions and the dark nude sons of Eastern climes mounted upon camels, gave a decided Oriental appearance to this gorgeous pageant. The Band, under the leadership of W. D. Story, far surpasses anything yet before the public, and is worthy the attention of musical admirers. The Drove of Camels and Den of Lions are alone worth the price of admission, and when looked upon, at once reminds one of the wildness of the Jungle. Mr. Clark, the Clown, excels all that have gone before him, making true the old adage, that he who plays the comic must need to be of brilliant intellect. Mr. William Dutton, in his grand double Somersault act is truly wonderful. In fact, we take pride in saying that French's Circus and Caravan by far excels all that have gone before it both in reference to its Exhibitions and the courtesy of its management."

WELL DONE.—Although Franklin township gives 105 Democratic majority, we learn that the Republicans on Tuesday elected Mr. Ephraim Newman Township Assessor by a decided majority.

WINTER IS COMING.—And to make ready for it and accommodate their friends, Col. F. B. Picking, of the firm of Picking & Co., is now in the city laying in a new and very large stock of Ready-made clothing for Fall and Winter wear. It is the design of Picking & Co. to keep on hand a finer and better class of Ready-made Clothing than ever before kept in this market, made of the best materials and by experienced workmen expressly for them. If any of our friends want a first-rate Overcoat, Dress or Business coat, Pants, Vests, &c., at reasonable prices, we advise them to call on Picking & Co., on Chambersburg street, opposite Buehler's Drug Store, where they will find just what they want. Also, a large stock of Hats, Caps, Boots, Shoes, and all kinds of Gentlemen's Underwear, with Musical Instruments, Clocks, Trunks and Notions of all kinds.

THE LATEST FASHIONABLE BEVERAGE.—A furnishing store in this City advertises a new style of cravat as "the latest fashion for the throat." This may be the latest style for the outside of that organ, but a fashion for the inside has just come up which is twice as popular. Somebody has found out that Schiedam Schnapps improves soda water, and everybody acquiesces in the arrangement. Although somewhat conservative by nature, we are not opposed to progress, and conceiving it our solemn duty, as a public journalist, to ascertain whether Schnapps Soda Water was a proper thing to be recommended to our subscribers, we tried it. The result may be stated in a few words. The mixture is good to take, and if our stomach is like stomachs in general, it is congenial to that part of the human organization. Finally, and to conclude, "it touches the right spot."—Sunday Courier. It

"FIVE MINUTES FOR REFRESHMENTS."—Everybody who has traveled by railroad has heard the above announcement, and has probably suffered from eating too hastily, thereby sowing the seed of Dyspepsia. It is a comfort to know that the Peruvian Syrup will cure the worst cases of Dyspepsia, as thousands are ready to testify. It

IN MEMORY

OF MRS. REBECCA J. BROSIUS, WHO DEPARTED THIS LIFE, FEB. 21ST, 1870.

Thou has gone to the grave, but we would not recall thee;
There Jesus once slumbered in gentle repose;
No care in that chamber of rest shall befall thee,
No wail of affliction shall tell of earth's woes.

"Oh blest," saith the Spirit, and gladly we write it,
"Oh blest are the dead who die in the Lord,"
How rich is the comfort—and why should we slight it—
That thou art enjoying thy final reward?

Dear wreck of mortality, here we will leave thee;
Thou perfect in beauty—thou fairest in form—
Thou tender in heart—for earth's rude touches did grieve thee—
Thou mild one, whose spirit has bowed to the storm.

In the grave we will leave thee, fall beautiful flower,
Too sweet in this sin-troubled world long to bloom,
Thou hast cheered us awhile, now we yield to the power,
That hath called thee, far lovelier charms to assume.

All earth with its ties in vain would have bound thee,
While blessedly gazing on yonder bright shore;
No doubting was thine—no cloud hovered round thee,
But upward thy spirit did joyously soar.

As the night wore away, and the day star ascended,
Away from this dismal and painful abode,
Thy soul, with its rapturous pinions extended,
Winged her way to the sky—to the bosom of God.

Thou dost rest from thy toils, we will not lament thee,
We will bow in submission to Heaven's decree,
And earnestly pray to the powers that send thee,
That again in the skies we united may be.

In that garner of love, oh what joys are preparing,
What gems are collecting, forever to bloom;
We'll then look to that world, for earth little carling,
And seek for like grace, while we part from thy tomb.

A FRIEND.

A CHANCE FOR BARGAINS.—Messrs. Cobean & Cunningham having determined to close out their stock of Ready-made Clothing, are now selling all kinds of Coats, Pants, Vest, &c, at largely reduced prices—many of them less than cost. Now is the time to secure Bargains. The goods are all first-class and will positively be sold without regard to cost. aug.12.tf

FOR SALE.—A VULCAN STOVE, in good order—too large for my present use. It will be sold at a low price.

NEWS OF NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

CARROLL.—Oliver Yingling, near Manchester, was almost instantly killed on Sunday the 2d inst., under the following circumstances: Young Yingling was walking to Manchester to church, and a gentleman named Peterman was riding in the same direction on a high spirited colt. About half a mile from town, on the Hanover and Baltimore turnpike, deceased got behind the colt, which suddenly kicked and struck him with tremendous force near the heart. Before a physician reached him death ensued:—On Wednesday of last week the wife of John M. Price, of Manchester township, committed suicide by hanging herself. The unfortunate woman had made several attempts to take her life before, but failed. Family troubles are said to have been the cause of it.—The Carroll County Fair last week was largely attended.

CUMBERLAND.—On the night of the 29th ult., the large Barn of Mr. Dunlap, near Newville, was destroyed by fire. The tenuant, R. B. Thompson, lost heavily, five horses, all his horned cattle, grain, &c., amounting to $2,000.

FRANKLIN.—The 77th Pa. Regiment had an interesting Re-Union in Chambersburg, on the 9th ult. Speeches were made by Col. G. S. Stumbaugh, Capt. G. W. Skinner, Gen. Russell, Gen. Jordan, Lieut. Welsh, and others.—T. F. Tritle, formerly of Franklin county, is the Republican candidate for Governor in Nevada.—Olive Logan will Lecture in Chambersburg on Saturday evening.—Rev. Moses Kieffer, D. D., of Chambersburg, has accepted a call from the Reformed congregation at Mercersburg.—On the night of the 3rd inst., as Adam Vandereau was returning home with his team, he was attacked by two men, who came out from the woods, presenting a pistol and demanding his money. They then dragged him from his horse and threw him upon the ground, threatening to shoot him if he called for help. They took his pocket book containing $68 and some notes.

LANCASTER.—The barn of Mr. Davis Clemson near the Gap, was burned on Wedesday of last week, Mr. Clemson is peculiarly unfortunate with his barns, as this is the fifth barn he has had burned. He had a large barn burned September 11th, 1861; another burned September 16th 1862; another September 20th, 1866; another September 10th 1869, and this one September 21st, 1870. He also had his house fired in August 1869, but it was put out before much damage was done. All these barns were burned in the month of September, between the 10th and 21st. They were all insured but one.

YORK.—Last week A. G. Schmidt, of Hanover, sold to Mr. Samuel Shirk six shares of Hanover Branch Railroad Stock for $485—$80 83½ per share; par value, $50.—The York county Fair was well attended last week.—Albert Lawrence, of York, while driving on the track, was thrown from his buggy, breaking his right leg. Wm. Emig, of Emigsville, while on his way to the fair, had his leg fractured by his horse kicking through the dash.—The name of the Post-office at McSherrysville has been changed to Anville.—A child of Charles Harshell, of Shrewsberry township, aged 2 years, was so badly injured on the 4th inst., by having its arm caught in the shafting of a mill while in the arms of its father, that the arm had to be amputated; the child died on the 6th.—The announcement of the appointment of George Geiger as Sheriff, in place of Sheriff Pfahler, deceased, was premature; the Coroner is acting.—A terrible accident from the careless use of fire arms occured in Fairview township, on Sunday afternoon, Oct. 2d. Theodore Orris was seated at a table engaged in withdrawing some cartridges from his revolver, when from some cause the weapon was discharged, the ball entering the throat of his brother Henry obliquely, lodging somewhere about the cervical vertebra. The wound is a ghastly one, and the unfortunate young man is in a very critical condition.

IN by-gone days a man of style in Paris wore a coat of bright blue silk, faced with yellow; a white satin vest, wrought with gold-lace; satin trowsers tied at the knee with knots of gay ribbon; white silk hose, with slippers called pumps; and frills of costly lace drooping daintily over the hands. His hair was covered with pomatum, and then well floured, and his queue was stiff with powder and oil. On the whole, present fashions, both for ladies and gentlemen, might be worse than they are.

LOOK HERE.—E. Woodward has commenced, in connection with his Gunsmithing, the repairing of Umbrellas, Parasols, &c., which he will warrant to be better fixed than is done by the majority of Umbrella-menders. Any person wishing work done in this line can leave word at his shop on Carlisle Street, and it will be sent for and returned. Charges moderate. He also has still on hand a variety of Battle-field Relics, of any kind and style, a large assortment of Canes, &c. Call and see him. tf

BOROUGH TAXES.—The Town Council being in want of funds, and a large number of assessed Taxes being unpaid, the Collectors have been instructed to proceed to an IMMEDIATE COLLECTION of all outstanding Borough Taxes. Tax-payers in arrears will be called on by the Collectors in the course of a few days, and all who wish to save costs will do well to make arrangements for prompt payment —as payment, under the orders of the Council, will be enforced by legal process. Sept. 30-3t.

PRIME OYSTERS.—E. H. Minnigh makes it a point to serve up the VERY BEST Oysters that can be secured in the Baltimore market. He has special accommodations for Ladies and Gentlemen, who will find every thing in prime order. Oysters served up in every style, to suit the most fastidious. Call and see for yourselves.

THE BEST STOVE now in market, for beauty, economy, and comfort, is admitted all around to be the MORNING GLORY. It defies all competition, and that is the judgment of all who have used it. It is just the thing for Offices, Stores, Parlors and Chambers. Call at C. H. Buehler's Ware Room, opposite the Passenger Depot, and examine for yourselves. tf

SAVE MONEY.—Pending the agitation of the Funding Bill, which will evidently depreciate Government Bonds, persons would do well by reading the advertisement of the "Gettysburg National Bank," in another column, and exchange their Government Bonds and realize a handsome profit thereby, and obtain an investment as safe and profitable. tf

ATTENTION FARMERS.—Try the celebrated Patent Elastic Rubber-lined Collars, Saddles, and Pads. Warranted to prevent horses from galling and to heal up under work horses already galled, if properly fitted; and sore necks and backs are kept clean with water and castile soap, or no pay. For sale by J. W. Cress, Manufacturer's Agent, Gettysburg. sep10-tf

☞Hamlin's Celebrated Wizard Oil, for rheumatism, neuralgia, headache, toothache, &c., for sale by A. D. Buehler, Druggist, Gettysburg. tf

FOR SALE CHEAP.—A good second-hand Falling and Shifting-top Buggy. Enquire at this office. tf

ALWAYS AHEAD.—Capt. NORRIS is determined not to be outdone by rivals, and has again added largely to his stock for fall and winter wear. If you want a fashionable Hat, Cap, Coat, Pants, or Vest, for fall or winter wear, or a good pair of Boots or Shoes or any kind of underwear as cheap as before the war—Norris' Head-Quarters is the place, (Arnold's corner) young gents. If you want a fashionable Tie or Bow, don't forget that Norris is getting new styles every week, and always has the latest. His stock of Hats is the largest in the county and greatly reduced in price, all styles and price. If you want to save money go to Norris' corner. Sept.16-tf

TO THE PUBLIC.

OFFICE OF THE HOWE SEWING MACHINE AGENCY,
GETTYSBURG, Oct. 11, 1870.

THE enormous sale of the Howe Sewing Machine, and the good names it makes for itself after purchase and trial, have, for the second time, brought before the public a spurious imitation. Buyers of Sewing Machines are earnestly cautioned to observe the Trade Mark. The medallion of Elias Howe, Jr., Inventor and Maker, is embedded in every Howe Machine. Without it none are genuine.

"Facts are stubborn things." If I were to write volumes on the merits of the Howe, I could not make stronger proof that it is the best Sewing Machine the world ever saw, than that it is now in a really good article is ever imitated.

Prudent is the cheapest machine in the market. It is the only shuttle machine that has all the wearing parts made of hardened steel. It costs double to build in this durable manner, but it is built to USE AND LAST, and is therefore rapidly gaining in public favor over machines put up to SELL. Aside from its superior built it will be stronger, neater and more reliable work, of every kind, than any other machine in the market. (Including the bogus Howe Machine built by the agents of the Grover & Baker Sewing Machine Company.)

"Oh for a lash in every woman's hand,
To lash the bogus Howe machine through the land."
"Who steals my purse steals trash,
But he that filches from me my good name,
Robs me of that which enriches him not,
And makes me poor indeed."

MANURING.

The summer is ended, and farmers are busily engaged in putting in their fall crops. It would seem almost superfluous to say a word in regard to the use of fertilizers; and yet the subject is one of such absorbing importance that we cannot forbear saying something in regard to it.

There are those, we know, who have little or no faith in the teachings or advice of what we know as "book farmers." They are not willing to admit that men who do not daily wield the spade and hoe, hold the plow or drive the mowing or reaping machine, know practical farming, and that, therefore, their suggestions are without value. Fortunately the number of this class of skeptical ones is daily lessening, and will continue to grow smaller as intelligence spreads its influence throughout the land. There is nothing more easy of practical demonstration than that good crops cannot be grown upon the same land successively for a number of years, without a liberal use of fertilizers. Our entire country furnishes incontestable evidence of the truth of this. It has been attempted so repeatedly, and failed, the wonder is that men can be found who will persist in following out the old system which has resulted in reducing the average of our wheat crop from twenty-five bushels to less than half that quantity per acre.

Our advice to farmers is—Manure liberally. Do not be afraid of the expense. Judicious, liberal manuring is like judicious, liberal advertising. It requires some nerve on the part of the farmer at first, to bring his courage up to the sticking point, but that reached, he rarely ever fails to follow it up. If he has not enough farm yard manure, then let him not hesitate in regard to procuring a supply of some one or more of the many well established concentrated fertilizers which are to be found in the market. This advice may, in the estimation of some persons, smell a little of the shop, but if practically applied, it will prove sound and good, and for this reason we tender it.

HAD TO BE PAID FOR.—He of whom we write lived in one of the numerous "cities" of Michigan. In addition to farming he made a little (some said much) money by selling beef. But according to his own statement, he always lost money by it. While serving his customers with tender steaks he would speak feelingly of how much he lost on that "critter."

"Well, Uncle Johnny," said a customer, "if you lose so much money, why don't you quit business?"

Uncle Johnny was equal to the occasion, when he replied, in a slow and thoughtful manner, "Well, the fact is, I've just bought the farm south of mine, and it's got to be paid for."

A SMART girl in Minnesota popped the question to her lover, asked the consent of her parents, procured a marriage license, ordered the wedding breakfast, the carriage to convey them to the depot, and had a private conversation with the parson, all the same day. The young man had occupied seven years in the effort to ask her to have him, and had failed every time.

THE fellow who was told that the best cure for palpitation of the heart, was to stop hugging and kissing the girls, said, "If that is the only remedy which can be proposed, I say let 'er palpitate."

SOMETHING TO TAKE.—"Will you take something?" said a teetotaler to his friend, when standing near a tavern.

"Don't care if I do," was the reply.

"Vell," said Frank, "lets take a walk."

DODGE'S PATENT REAPER AND MOWER AND SELF RAKER.

THIS machine has met with the most complete success. In every section where it has been introduced, it has taken precedence over those machines which have heretofore ranked as first-class. It is a perfect Self-Raker and a superior Mower.

A careful examination will convince any one of its superior merits over all others, in simplicity, strength and durability. As a Self-raking Reaper it is carry no rival. In our knowledge.

The Dodge rake is attached to no other machine in the United States, except to this machine.—Built by the DODGE & STEVENSON Manufacturing Co., Auburn, New York.

READ THE NOTICE OF THE COMPANY TO OUR AGENTS.

Having been informed that certain manufacturers in Ohio and elsewhere are claiming that the ... with DODGE'S PATENT RELEASE, we ask you to furnish us the ... vendizer or pitchfork which ... and we will prosecute to the ... sons manufacturing, selling or using the same to the ... rake except of our own manufacture.

JOHN A. DODGE, President.

We have that confidence in this machine that we are willing to let those wanting a machine test it with any other machine they wish, and keep the one that gives the most satisfaction.

Farmers wanting Droppers attached can be accommodated.

For the benefit of those wanting machines we should refer them to a few of those to whom we have sold, viz:

WEAVER & SON.

Livery, Sales & Exchange

STABLES,

Washington Street, Gettysburg, Penn'a.

TAKE pleasure in announcing to the public that they have better accommodations than ever to supply the public with all styles and kinds of Conveyances that can be found in a first-class livery. Their Horses, Buggies and Sleighs cannot be beaten by any establishment in the town. In prices they defy competition.

HORSES AND MULES

bought and sold, on reasonable terms.

GIVE US A CALL.

Take Notice.

THE undersigned is desirous of closing up his old accounts, and would ask all those indebted to call and settle the same. The books will be found at the above stables and all persons indebted are earnestly requested to call and square their accounts. NICHOLAS WEAVER.

EAGLE LIVERY,

Sale and Exchange Stables,

Opposite the Eagle Hotel, Chambersburg Street GETTYSBURG, PENN'A.

THE undersigned have opened a new LIVERY, SALE AND EXCHANGE STABLE, in this place, and are prepared to offer superior accommodations in this line. We have provided ourselves with of the latest styles, sufficient to meet the public demand. Our horses are good, without spot or blemish, and perfectly reliable. We will not "jockey" but all of the "2.40" order.

Killing parties can always be accommodated and comfortable equipments furnished.

Parties, large or small, can get just what they want on the most accommodating terms.

Visitors to the Battle-field politely attended to and reliable drivers only employed.

Parties conveyed to and from the Depot upon the arrival and departure of every train.

Horses bought, sold, or exchanged, and always a chance for bargains given. Our motto is "fair dealing and no gouging."

☞Particular attention paid to furnishing Vehicles and Teams for Funerals.

☞We flatter ourselves that by charging moderately and by furnishing superior accommodations, we cannot fail to please every one who patronizes our establishment.

MANHOOD

IN THE YOUNG AND RISING GENERATION.

The vegetative powers of life are strong, but in a few years how often the pallid hue, the lack-lustre eye and emaciated form, and the impossibility of application to mental effort, show its baneful influence. It soon becomes evident to the observer that some depressing influence is checking the development of the body. Consumption is talked of, and perhaps the youth is removed from school and sent into the country. This is one of the worst movements. Removed from ordinary diversions of the ever-changing scene of the city, the powers of the body, too much enfeebled to give zest to healthful and rural exercise, thoughts are turned inwards upon themselves.

If the patient be a female, the approach of the menses is looked for with anxiety, as the first symptom in which Nature is to show her saving power in diffusive the circulation and visiting the cheek with the bloom of health. Alas! increase of appetite has grown by what it fed on; the energies of the system are prostrated, and the whole economy is deranged. The beautiful and wonderful period in which body and mind undergo so fascinating a change from child to woman, is looked for in vain: the parent's heart bleeds in anxiety, and fancies the grave but waiting for its victim.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU, for Weakness arising from excesses or early indiscretion, attended with the following symptoms; Indispositon to Exertion, Loss of Power, Loss of Memory, Difficulty of Breathing, General Weakness, Horror of Death, Night Sweats, Cold Feet, Wakefulness, Dimness of Vision, Languor, Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System, Often Enormous Appetite with Dyspeptic Symptoms, Hot Hands, Flushing of the Body, Dryness of the Skin, Pallid Countenance and Eruptions on the Face, Pain in the Back, Heaviness of the Eyelids, Frequently Black Spots Flying before the Eyes, with Temporary Suffusion and Loss of Sight, Want of Attention, Great Mobility, Restlessness, with Horror of Society. Nothing is more desirable to such patients than Solitude, and nothing they more dread, for Fear of Themselves; no Repose of Manner, no Earnestness, no Speculation, but a hurried Transition from one question to another.

These symptoms, if allowed to go on—which this Medicine invariably removes—soon follow Loss of Power, Fatuity, and Epileptic Fits, in one of which the patient may exp
